

The Ford was a knockout, juice brakes, push button starter, Rajo heads, chrome covers on the wire wheel covers, running lights and dual spare tires with knock off hubs.

I had one problem, Ann would not ride in it. On a Western Tour Paul Bell rode with me, and I trailered it to the Meyersdale Show where it won an award.

At a custom show in Pittsburgh it won a Best of Show. But, still Ann wouldn't ride in it. So the search was on. 🍷
