

5. Tours: Charlie Schifano thanked everyone who helped with tours this past year. The Progressive Dinner Tour, The Don Brant Tour and the California Homecoming tour by Jane & Warren Sheppick were well attended and well organized. Any suggestions for next year are welcome.
6. Car Show: Dan Calabrace once again chaired the annual Paul P. Bell Car Show. Dan said that we had 63 pre-registered cars, 3 vendors, and 226 cars on the field at the show. It was a wonderful day for a show. Dan thanked everyone who helped with the Show. Next years show is September 4th.
7. Christmas Party: John Kuhns was in charge of the Christmas Party, which was held at DeNunzios Chophous, formally the Blue Angel Restaurant on December 5, 2004. Music was provided by Pete Highlands. 107 members and guests attended the party. 116 reservations were taken. A visit from Santa and the give away of a TV and $1000 in gift certificates were awarded in prizes. Any suggestions for next years' party will be welcomed.
8. Monthly Meeting Hospitality & Badge Fines: Debbie was nice enough to prepare most of the treats we enjoyed at the monthly meetings throughout 2004. She asked if anyone had any suggestions to please let her know. Badge Fines are collected at regular monthly meetings. A 50/50 drawing is also done at the regular monthly meetings. The clubs portion of the 50/50 is added to the Badge Fine Kitty. The winner of the money in the kitty is drawn at each regular meeting. The member must be present to win.
9. Newsletter: Mark DeFloria thanked everyone who submitted photos and articles for the Round-Up. He thanked Fred Nicholls, Gary Cooper, Harvey Eger, Warren Sheppick and Mike Kosko for their frequent submission of articles for the Round-Up. The Round-Up is now published with a color cover. Mark has been notified that he will receive the "Award of Excellence" and the "Master Editor" awards at the National Meeting in Philadelphia for the Round-Up.
10. Scholarship: Tom Milligan reported that he attended the Eastern Westmoreland Career and Technology School's annual banquet to present a $1000 scholarship to Brandon Tepiley of Latrobe. This is the 9th year for our Scholarship program.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Annual Audit: Tom Milligan reported the annual audit was conducted by Bill Rusnock, John Kuhns and Clay Stoner. The committee reported that all was in order.
